BAY ST. LOUIS, MISS., FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1953

GLOVER, LADNER, SCAFIDE ELECTED

Observations.

By UDELL

We have never been able to understand what pleasure anyone gets from destroying the property of others. R. P. Neely, who is connected with the firm of Merritt, Chapman and Scott, told us that after the concrete was poured and finished on the slope abutment on this side of the bridge some vandals scratched their names in the wet cement, causing $200 to $300 in damages. Most of the cement had to be refinished. It is hoped that there will not be a repetition of this type of vandalism. Always respect the property of others. You do not have to pay the damages.

Mrs. Carl T. Smith will hold a piano recital at Bay High auditorium for her pupils Monday, May 18, at 8:00 p. m. The public is invited to attend.

We would like to extend our sincere congratulations to our new Mayor and re-elected Commissioners. We hope that the City of Bay St. Louis will continue to progress in the next four years.

Lion Club Urges Completion of Local Airstrip

At their regular meeting last Monday noon at Hotel Reed, the Bay St. Louis Lion Club unanimously adopted a resolution urging the Hancock County Board of Supervisors to complete the Bay St. Louis County Airstrip by filling, leveling and draining the strip. The text of the resolution is as follows:

"Whereas, the Hancock County Board of Supervisors have provided this community with a landing strip for small planes; and

"Whereas, this airstrip has brought strangers and travelers into our midst who would not ordinarily have stopped here; and

"Whereas, we believe that it would be to the best interest of this community and to Hancock County as a whole if the strip were completely finished by filling, leveling and draining said strip; and

"Whereas, we are also cognizant of the fact that the airstrip in its present unfinished state is a danger to those flying small planes who might attempt to land their craft because of the low spots on the field; and

"Whereas, we believe that the money spent on such completion would redound to the benefit of the community and to the county as a whole because of the favorable publicity we would then enjoy by having the strip marked on the maps of the Civil Aeronautics Authority because said maps are distributed to owners of small planes throughout the United States;

"Be It Therefore, Known that we the Lions Club of Bay St. Louis do hereby respectfully urge and request the Hancock County Board of Supervisors to do all within their power to complete the Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Airstrip by filling, leveling and draining said strip.

"Be It Also Known, that since this year of 1953 has been especially set aside for the observance of the celebration of the 50th Anniversary of Powered Flight that our Community and Hancock County would feel justly proud to take part in this nation-wide celebration by dedicating the strip upon its completion during this year of 1953."

Holy Name Society Holds Regular Meeting

The Holy Name Society of Our Lady of the Gulf Church held its regular monthly meeting in the Scout House on Tuesday evening, May 5, 1953. At this meeting, the officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President, Edmond J. Doussan; vice-president, Warren Carver; secretary, Louis Moreau, Jr.; treasurer, Louis Moreau, Sr.; Marshal, Charles Bouis.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fernandez, former residents of Bay St. Louis, recently purchased a home in Waveland. They are planning to make this their permanent home.

Vandalism Deplored By Legion

Mrs. Mary Ellen Favre DeWitt was one of the 19 graduates of Charity Hospital school of Practical Nursing recently.

Attending the graduation from Bay St. Louis were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Favre, Patsy, Peggy, Robert and Jeannie Favre, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Favre and daughter, Judy Ann, Mrs. Floyd Cummings, Emile Lee Cummings and Mrs. DeWitt's daughter, Cindy.

Open House For Hospital

The King's Daughters Hospital Board and staff, through this medium extend a cordial invitation to the community to the annual open house celebration, Florence Nightingale Day on Tuesday, May 19 from 3 to 5, at the hospital.

In former years Florence Nightingale Day was celebrated with a shower for the hospital. They now use a linen service; china and silver was replenished last year. This year they will be grateful for donations which will go toward expenses incurred in redecorating the hospital, installing Venetian blinds and laying asphalt tile in most of the rooms.

Rotary Club Selects Candidate For "Miss Hospitality" Contest

The Bay St. Louis Rotary Club has announced their candidate for the "Miss Hospitality" honors for Hancock County. Chosen to represent the Rotarians is Dolores Violet Carver, 20 year old blond daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Carver of 335 Main Street, Bay St. Louis. Dolores is 5 feet, 2 inches and weighs 113 pounds. She is a graduate of Bay High School, where she was Salutatorian of the Class of 1949. Miss Carver also was chosen Homecoming Queen in 1949. The candidate is employed at Coast Electric Power Association as a secretary, after being associated with the Circuit Clerk's office for a year and a half. Dolores Violet has a brother, Harold, 25 and one sister, Betty, 23, both at home. Her favorite off-duty pleasure is her activities as a Gray Lady at the Gulfport Veterans Administration Hospital. Other activities include the piano, and oil painting, while during school days she served as a Majorette for three years. No immediate plans for matrimony are included in the Rotary's candidate but steady attendance at Our Lady of the Gulf is a main part of her life. The entry of Dolores into the local race brings the total number to four, as the Lion-sponsored contest draws near. Closing date for the Hancock County contest is June 6 and the actual contest will be held on June 13. Other candidates are Irma Joan Lee, Lions Club; Geraldine Martin, American Legion; and Elizabeth Jane Vassalli, Chamber of Commerce. Other organizations expected to enter candidates are the Bay-Waveland Garden Club and Bay-Waveland Yacht Club.

Soil Stewardship Service

Ministers of all denominations throughout the South and Southwest have been invited to take part in the observance of Soil Stewardship Sunday. Reverend Charles R. Johnson, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, extends a cordial invitation to parishioners and friends of Christ Church to be present at the 9:30 and 11:00 o'clock services next Sunday, May 17, to worship in a service sermon which will be in keeping with the occasion.

The setting aside of one Sunday each year as a special day for remembering our God-given responsibility as stewards of the soil was first observed in many sections of the Southwest several years ago FARM AND RANCH, in cooperation with local pastors and soil conservation district supervisors, has been instrumental in establishing this observance, both through its editorial support and personal work done by members of its editorial staff.

This year a more widespread observance of Soil Stewardship Sunday was planned, and Sunday, May 10, was designated as the Sunday when pastors of churches were to devote at least one sermon to the relation of our soil to the people of the church.

Through work of the Soil Conservation Service, thousands of acres of worn-out farm land has been reclaimed and made to produce abundantly again. Good soil produces good crops, and good food means a healthy, prosperous people. It is the duty of every person to encourage soil conservation. The very future of our country depends upon how the soil is handled. Food crops produced on rich soil have more nutritive value in minerals and vitamins than do crops produced on worn-out land.

Within the last few weeks persons unknown have committed depredations to the American Legion Pier at Beach and Washington street. A number of boards and rails have been removed from the pier.

The above practice makes the free public pier unsafe to the public. Replacements cost the Legion unnecessary expenditures. Continuation of damages to the American Legion Pier will cause the Legion to restrict use of the pier to members only. We sincerely hope this action will not be necessary.

Help us keep the Pier open for you. Call the police if you see anyone causing damage to the pier, ask Lucien Kidd, Commander and Gordon C. Romanoff, publicity chairman.

LIGHTS UP!
Members of the American Legion and the Public at large are watching the progress of the lighting of the Legion's Free Public Pier.

Most of the Materials have been procured. Within the next few days it is expected that the pier will be lighted from the Legion Club house to the end of the pier.

Through the continued and determined efforts of the Legion here Bay St. Louis now has the longest pier on the Gulf Coast. Facilities of the public are open and free to the public at large.

LEGION CLUB OPEN FOR SUMMER

The American Legion announced the summer opening of the Legion Beach Club at the head of Washington street and South Beach.

Members and friends will find genial "The Day" S. Guagliardo, on duty at the club daily.

Previous operations of the club have not proven to be a financial success. In spite of this the Legion wants its facilities open to the public. Clean rest rooms and other conveniences will be open and free to all.

All types of refreshments are sold at standard prices. Visit the Legion Beach Club for a cooling drink and a cool gulf breeze. You will always find a friend there.

Sea Sprite Buffet Supper

BAY HIGH P.-T. A. HOLDS LAST MEETING OF YEAR TUESDAY

Bea Smith Wins Honors In Show

Mrs. Bea Smith won recognition at the Jury Art Show held at the Markham Hotel, Gulfport, recently.

Her winning portraits were of Ellen McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald, and Elizabeth Ann Morlan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Morlan.

Twelve of the entries were outstanding in their ideas, all the paintings showed excellent color, mood and harmony of pattern. A three-man jury spent the better part of Friday evening making up its mind resulting in many good choices.

"Tide Subside," by Peggy Wolfe, is an eye-appealing oil work that offers a new slant on driftwood, giving the sea credit with washing in a bottle, a lost beacon light and other objects in addition to driftwood.

"Green Morn," an oil by Thomas E. Barrett, is a unique concoction of a wave-tossed boat under green moonlight; "Still Life," is a clever oil grouping of several objects foreign to one another, among them a pot plant, a fence, lounge chair and a bunch of bananas.

"Bay St. Louis 1947," was one of the oddest entries in the show, a water color fantasy by Gladys Bartlett Jones. Giving obvious inferences to the 1947 hurricane.

Harry E. Burrow's water color, "Valley Farm," and Attwood Bolton's "Tree with Moss," an oil, both jar the memory of art enthusiasts who always wanted to paint these familiar scenes.

"Elizabeth Ann," an oil by Bea Smith was as impressive as if the little girl in the purple dress had stopped playing just long enough to pose for a quick photograph.

"The Clown," a charcoal by Harold Groff, was a captured look of pathetic emotion that invariably brought the visitor back for a second study.

F. Wenderoth, Saunders, who painted, "Trinity Church," had the advantage over many of his co-artists in the show of being a full-time artist for national publications; the familiar Pass Christian Church, as Mr. Saunders paints it was a study in shadows and color.

"Ellen," another Bea Smith oil portrait, was outstanding for its facial expression; this little girl in red dress appeared anxious for the art spectator not to pass her by.

"The Open Book," in oil by Marguerite Astorias, was unique not

The Bay High P.-T. A. held its last meeting of the school year Tuesday evening. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Charles Schultz.

It was voted to give twenty dollars to the band for the music and send a girl to Girls' State. In giving the year's progress report, Mr. Ingram stated that he was proud of the work done this year. The year started with over 200 high school students and six members of the faculty with master's degrees. The Testing Program with the Standardized Reading and the Kruder Vocational Preference Tests was set up this year. The results of the vocational preference tests aided in the planning for the annual Career Day. Then outstanding people in the various vocation fields were on hand to talk to and answer questions of the students. Federal and State funds were secured to aid in the construction of the new elementary building. Mr. Ingram expressed appreciation to members of the P.-T. A. and others who helped with the petition on the bond issue. The setting up of classes for handicapped children was an outstanding accomplishment. He pointed out that doctors representing the State Department of Education determined which children are eligible. The state supervisor has praised the work of the unit here as the best in the state. With the help of the P.-T. A. the Visual Education program has been enlarged.

Efforts are being made to help every student plan his schedule for his entire high school curriculum on the basis of what he plans to do after graduation.

In the field of public relations, Mr. Ingram pointed out that the school gymnasium was used for the annual R. E. A. Day Activities, and the 4-H Club took over the auditorium for their annual because of the book but because of the intricate design and color of the antique lamp which lights the book.

And "Bayou Bend," an oil by Mrs. H. A. Oxenham, required longer to absorb than the average painting because it was a pleasing, comprehensive view of fishing boats, a bayou house, cattle grazing and a skyline of scrawny trees.

"Evening," oil, Martha M. Gardner; "Boat," water color, J. Edward Hamrick; "Gladiolus," ink, Charles Waggener; "A Saugstuck Garden," water color, Charlotte E. Tibbs; "Camellias," water color, Josephine Alphonso; "Back Bay," water color, Anna McNair; "Work Car on Siding," water color, Nelson M. Ducomb.

Commissioners J. Cyril Glover and Sylvan J. Ladner, Jr., were re-elected in Tuesday's Democratic Primary for the City of Bay St. Louis. John A. Scaffide obtained a majority of votes for the office of Mayor. He received 741 votes; his opponents Jos. H. Benvenuti and H. L. Kergosien, received 456 and 242, respectively. In the race for Commissioners, Glover received 959 votes; Ladner 943; Emile Piazza, 503; Ed Marquez, 253; Nelius Favre, 218. A total of 1458 votes were cast in the election. second primary will not be necessary. The officials will take the oath of office July 1, 1953; their four year term will end July 1, 1957. Maurice J. Artigues, George Stevenson and Ben Hille were nominated without opposition and re-elected as members of the Municipal Democratic Executive committee.

S. J. A. Crowning Held Sunday

The historic shrine of St. Joseph Academy was the scene of the annual crowning, Sunday, May 10, at 5:00 p. m. The sodalists of Our Lady's county rally. Mr. Alliston, in evaluating the P.-T. A., stated that the project for the correction of defects of school children, which was begun some seven years ago by the P.-T. A. but now taken over by the County Board of Supervisors, still is being carried under the bank account name of the P.-T. A. Fund for Correction of Defects. In stressing the importance of P.-T. A. he pointed out that generally the child whose parents should attend have a better attitude toward school; he thinks in terms of "our" school. P.-T. A. does some things that no other organizations can or will do. Getting names on the petition for the bond issue was only a small item. The thing that really counts is getting in and pitching, being genuinely interested in the school. He expressed his enjoyment serving as president and appreciation to everyone for co-operating with him. He pledged his full support to Mrs. Kiefer during her presidency.

Mrs. Nelson officiated in the installation service of the incoming officers for 1953-54: Mrs. Frank Kiefer, president; Mrs. Warren Traub, vice-president; and Mrs. George Horton, treasurer. Mrs. Bill Witter is the new secretary.

Sodality, dressed in white skirts, veils and blue capes, formed the procession from the school to the shrine. During this procession the sodalists recited part of the Rosary and sang hymns as they approached the shrine. While the sodalists assembled about the shrine, the last part of the procession, consisting of maids chosen to represent each class, Monsignor Gmelch and Father Balchazar, took their places near Our Lady's statue and were then led in prayer by Msgr. Gmelch. At the Act of Consecration each sodalist consecrated herself to the Blessed Mother.

Two tiny flower girls, Susan Rhodes and Mimi Monti, carrying the crown and flowers respectively, preceded Maria Theresa del Carmen, chosen from the Junior Class to crown the Blessed Mother. Also from each class were two honorary maids, chosen on the basis of being good sodalists and their devotedness to the Mother of God. The Seniors, Juniors, sophomores and freshmen were: Maria Artigues, Patsy Balby, Karen Kergosien and Marlene Egloff (officers of the Sodality); Barbara Flink, Mary Rose LaBuzzo, Lucia Ortega, Kinta Kergosien, Diane Blanchard and Jean Fitzpatrick.

BAPTIZED SUNDAY

Maude Eldridge, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Camors, was baptized at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic church Sunday, May 10, at 4:00 p. m. Sponsors were Maude's brother and sister, Robert and Angela Camors. Rev. Father John Leard performed the ceremony.

SEA COAST ECHO, FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1953

The low-rent government housing project now under construction will be completed in July and ready for occupancy by August 1, according to George Heitzmann, director of the 36-unit enterprise.

The local office of the Federal Housing Authority has been granted funds to erect 18 white and 18 colored dwellings. Dye and Mullings are chief contractors. Building has been under way for six weeks and is expected to be finished by the first week in July.

All 18 white units are to be located on Ballentine and Railroad. Colored housing is being constructed between Washington and Sycamore

County Agent's Notes

By HOWARD SIMMONS

DAIRYING
Don't let your calves become infested with mastitis. Mastitis germs can infect milk-fed calves and cause them to be low producers when they first freshen.

Germs can be spread by young calves being fed from open pails. A pail fed calf gets the germ on its muzzle then passes the infection on by rubbing against other calves. When these germs infect baby calves, the disease might not be detected for months and in the meantime the germs are destroying tissue, causing lumpy quarters and limiting milk production.

Ways of helping prevent such disease outbreaks in your herd are by using the nipple pail or bottle for feeding; placing calves in separate pens or tying them after feeding until the muzzle dries. If mastitis does develop in a newly freshened heifer, call a veterinarian immediately. He will determine the exact type of infection and take steps to treat and prevent spread of the disease.

SWEET POTATOES
Sweet potato growers who expect to sell, exchange or give away seed sweet potato plants next season must make written application to the State Plant Board at State College, for the necessary inspection. The deadline for making applications is June 1st, so do not delay.

When requesting the inspections growers should enclose a money order for 50 cents to serve as a partial payment for sweet potato certificate tags or certificate tapes. The 50 cents will be returned if the growers fields do not pass inspection.

In requesting inspections, the grower should give his name, address, acreage to be inspected and approximate location of the farm.

Things Looking Better For Outdoor Sports

Things are looking better all the time for devotees of outdoor sports who have until now been cramped by having no place to go. Two new projects announced recently by the Game and Fish Commission—one a public hunting grounds and the other a 140-acre public lake—have cheered hunters and fishermen who will have access to these facilities that are being partially financed with federal funds.

In the Poplarville-Lumberton area the famous Rap Batson game pasture, now owned by the International Paper Company, has been leased by the Commission and will be utilized as a refuge around which will be set up the 95,000-acre Wolf Creek Game Management area.

Controlled hunting in season will be allowed on the outer parts of the area, while the 5,500-acre Batson pasture will be maintained as a permanent game sanctuary and breeding grounds to keep the larger area from being depleted of wildlife.

Any licensed hunter of the state will be permitted to hunt in the area after purchasing a special permit for a nominal fee, and after agreeing to abide by game management rules governing the area.

This is the second in a series of such areas to be set up in the state with federal aid funds obtained under the Pittman-Robertson Act. And, just as this Act specifies that the tax on firearms and ammunition shall be used to finance Game Management areas, so does the Dingell-Johnson Bill set aside the excise tax on fishing tackle for the development of public fishing projects like Lake Mary.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Bradford Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hicks Edwards and Mr. Elmore Howard Read, Jr., son of Mrs. Elmore K. Read and the late Mr. Read was quietly celebrated Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in the Church of the Holy Name of Jesus in New Orleans. The Rev. Harold L. Cooper, S. J., officiated before a small gathering of immediate members of the two families. The altar of the church was decorated for the wedding with clusters of white spring flowers.

Best man was the groom's brother, Joseph Read.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a pale beige silk shantung suit with a small white lace hat. The hat fashioned with a point on either side was trimmed with natural color veiling. She wore white linen shoes and bag and carried a spray bouquet of fleur d'amour with a white or chid in the center.

The matron-of-honor and only attendant to the bride was her sister, Mrs. Ann Edwards, who chose a lemon yellow linen dress worn with a Navy blue straw hat and Navy blue accessories. She also wore on one shoulder a corsage bouquet of matching orchids.

Following the ceremony Mr. Read and his bride left on a wedding trip to the Gulf Coast and upon their return will take possession of an apartment in New Orleans.

The bride was graduated from Newcomb College. Her mother was before her marriage Miss Irene Edwards.

Mr. Read attended Loyola university, and during World War II he served as a major in the US Air Force. His mother is the former Miss Laurette Landry.

The bride is the niece of Miss Mae Edwards and Mr. John K. Edwards of this city.

"I Was Marked With The SIGN OF THE CROSS"

"I knelt with others in a half-circle about the altar.
"My hands were anointed with holy oil by the Bishop and wrapped carefully in new linen.
"The ancient prayers of the Church were being recited over me. The hands of the Bishop were laid upon me just as the hands of St. Peter and St. James and St. Paul were laid upon the young disciples, they sent forth to labor, to teach, and to die.

"The chalice with wine and water and a small dish holding the unconsecrated bread were entrusted to me. The priestly vestments were placed upon my shoulders.
"I was being consecrated to God and to the service of souls. I was being marked with the Sign of the Cross.

"It was receiving the Sacrament of the Catholic priesthood, usually referred to as Holy Orders... instituted by Christ, conferred by the Apostles, and continuing in unbroken succession nearly 2,000 years since the time of Our Lord."

Some may scoff at the solemn ceremonies that attend the Ordination of a Catholic priest, and question the good sense of a man who surrenders many of life's material pleasures for such a calling. Others may doubt that the Catholic priest possesses any Christ-given office or powers which other men do not possess.

Perhaps you have heard someone challenge the authority of the priest to forgive sins, and his power to consecrate the Body and Blood of Christ in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. You may have been told that you can deal directly with God and don't need a priest or any mediator other than Jesus Christ.

A highly interesting and enlightening pamphlet which explains the significance of the Sacrament received by all Catholic priests... explaining the priest's ideals, powers, and responsibilities... and giving a glimpse into the life of an average Catholic priest. On these acres are grown much of the wood used by America's lumber, plywood, and pulp and paper industries. These industries give thousands of workers employment. Be a good citizen, help the farmers grow the wood we need to keep these workers employed; protect our forest from fires.

When you are on vacation be careful of fires. Chances are you will be driving in and through forested country, when you are remember, always be careful with fire. One match or cigarette care-

GULF adds weight...

...to Mississippi's economic scales, helping to balance agriculture with industry and assure a sound foundation for the state's further growth.

Over the years, GULF has demonstrated its faith in this state's future by investing more than $100 million in its Mississippi operations. Expenditures in 1952 alone exceeded $15 million.

The activities of GULF, discoverer of nine Mississippi oil and gas fields and now producer of approximately one-fifth of the state's crude oil, have been felt throughout Mississippi as a factor in industrial development.

GULF is proud that in doing its primary job—finding and producing oil—it has aided substantially the efforts of Mississippians toward achieving a more sound and better balanced economy... efforts first given form and direction in 1936 by Governor Hugh White's BAWI Finance Agriculture With Industry—plan.

LINDA DeMETZ "CWENS" TAG
Miss Linda DeMetz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald DeMetz, was one of thirteen members of the Freshman Class at Ole Miss to be tagged by the "CWENS" Sorority. This sorority is a national honorary leadership society based, according to Mrs. Estelle G. Hedley, dean of women at the university, on character, leadership ability, and student record.

Miss DeMetz is a former Pass Christian student and was valedictorian of her graduation class last year.

JUDY GAMARD HAS BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON
Miss Judy Gamard celebrated her eleventh birthday anniversary with a birthday luncheon given in the Miramar Hotel last Saturday.

Following the luncheon the guests enjoyed a movie at the local theatre. Included in the group were Brenda and Georgia Byrnes, Julie LeJeune, Ann Holmes, Barbara Kalif, Kaye DeMetz and Barbara Allen.

PROGRESSIVE PARTY FOR ANN HOMES

On Sunday afternoon at one o'clock guests of Miss Ann Homes enjoyed a barbecue at the Homes residence on Sherman Drive, the group then went to a movie at the theatre and from there to Pineville where they played soft ball. Included in the group were Marion and Martha Homes, Judy Gamard, Kaye DeMetz, Julie LeJeune, Barbara Allen, Brenda and Georgia Byrnes, and hostess Miss Ann Homes.

MARTHA LASABBE CROWNED QUEEN OF MAY FESTIVAL

On Sunday night, May 3, the Sisters of Mercy of the St. Joseph Parochial School in Pass Christian, presented their annual May Festival in the municipal gymnasium which was filled to capacity.

With the splendor of a formal Throne Room as a setting, lovely Martha LaSabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis LaSabe, received her crown from King Eddie Taconi. Satin attired heralds headed a procession of over a hundred beautifully gowned maids and their dukes.

Mayor Francis Hursey, master of ceremonies, thanked the St. Stanislaus College orchestra which furnished the music. Mrs. Edith Loeas on behalf of the Mothers' Club presented flowers as a token of appreciation to Mrs. Francis Hursey and also the mother of the Mayor; and to Miss Peggie Reid, last year's queen, and to Miss Mary Frances Nease's, maid of honor.

Entertainment for the occasion was furnished by students of the Jacqueline Hinds School of Dancing. The special tumbling act ceived generous applause for students vied for position and attention. The act was new and refreshingly different.

Mrs. Charles Atchley ably directed the activities. The organizer of Teen-Town, Canteen and an active worker among younger people along the Gulfcoast, Mrs. Atchley's tireless efforts added enormously to the success of the occasion.

Miss Jane Lang, treasurer, announced this year's festival netted the sum of $1,122.57, which she declared, exceeded any previous amount. "We also took in over two hundred dollars as door receipts," added Miss Lang, "however some expenses must be paid from this amount such as decorations, flowers, music, etc." Miss Lang said she felt the school had received a wonderful support and the money will greatly strengthen the work carried on in St. Joseph's school.

Congressional Sidelights

COMMUNIST STRATEGY

Now that the Communists are showing new evidences of coming to some kind of at least a temporary truce settlement in Korea the question naturally arises in minds that have been taught to become suspicious of Communist objectives as to what their next move will be. For, it must always be borne in mind that the basic objective of the Kremlin masters is world conquest and domination. While it is yet too early to form a definite conclusion on the question of whether there will be a real truce in Korea, those who oppose this scheme of world domination must endeavor to arrive at what the next move will be in the event of such a truce and, of course, this is within itself one of the aims of the Russian mas-terminals — always keep the West guessing. Thereby the enemies of Russia, the West, are kept off balance and busy extending themselves and dissipating their resources.

It would now appear from developments in South-East Asia that while the Russians are talking peace in Korea and easing their pressure in the cold war in Europe, they are making threatening gestures and new movements in other parts of Asia. In fact, it reports from Indo-China that the war in that area has been going against the Communists and the French forces there have been getting the upper hand. And the same has been true in Burma and in Malaya. Therefore, the Communists proceeded to make a new move, this time the invasion of the mountainous and comparatively poor country of Laos. Again, the West was thrown off balance and required to make feverish efforts to come to the aid of the French with additional war supplies and equipment to prevent that country, which affords a gateway to India, from falling under Communist control.

There is also additional evidence that the Communists leaders are stirring up trouble in Africa. In fact, Egypt is seething with discontent and the Communist are masterminding the movement there to drive the British out of that North African country. If they are successful there the Suez Canal would fall into their hands. All of this adds up to the inescapable fact that the Communists have no intention of cooperating in the desire for world peace. That is the one thing that they do not want and will exert themselves to the utmost to prevent. On the contrary, all of these gestures and movements are a part and parcel of their ultimate goal of world domination. "Peace in our time" is certainly not in sight.
